A man and a woman are smiling and posing for a photo in front of a large, classical stone building with columns. They are standing on a grassy bank next to a body of water. The man is wearing a dark jacket and has his hand on the woman's shoulder. The woman is also wearing a dark jacket and has sunglasses on her head. The background shows a large, classical building with a pediment and columns, situated on a grassy hillside. The sky is overcast.

LUXURY
VACATIONS UK

SINCE 2002

Enjoy afternoon tea, private boating, and romantic picnics. We will arrange everything and have our driver-guide there to make it all happen.

Tour London, England with a private-guide and see those famous places and a few little off-the-tourist-trail gems your private guide can share with you. Then get into the English countryside and tour Stonehenge, Oxford, Windsor Castle and more.

You will be looked after from the very start to the last moment you leave our shores. This seven-night suggested tour can be customized to match personal interests, the pace of travel, and style of hotel.

Day 1

Arrival day in London

Meet and greet London Heathrow.

Your chauffeur will meet you inside the arrivals hall, assist with luggage and escort you to the vehicle. The travel time to central London is approximately 45 minutes.

Enjoy a meal with the one you love. We want to make your experience extraordinary. We have tried, tested and have produced a selection of restaurants that will be ideal for you both personally.

Dinner: Hide is a restaurant and bar by Hedonism Wines and Ollie Dabbous. Set over three floors, flooded with natural daylight and enjoying views across Green Park, Hide offers you the very best food and drink in a refined but relaxed setting. Hides' bar is surprisingly calm for such an acclaimed restaurant. Descending oaken steps that feel like you're the 'Fellowship Of The Ring', the downstairs is full of seductive lighting, grainy wood with charming waitstaff to direct you to your table. The lower level section of the restaurant is the absolute dream.

Overnight: London.

Day 2

Cupids capsule on the London Eye and guided tour

Service: chauffeur-driven tour with guide on-board.

Meet your private guide in the morning, talk about the day and head off around Royal London. The trip can be flexible on the day. For a first time visit; Enjoy a private tour inside Westminster Abbey, famous for coronations and royal weddings, including the wedding of Kate Middleton and Prince William. The Abbey is one of Britain's most important historic buildings. See the 700-year-old coronation throne and spectacular King Henry VII's chapel.

Walk the historic retail neighbourhood of Royal St James

Stroll through aristocratic London is characterized by elegant squares, specialist shops and smart restaurants. Before large department stores, ladies and gentlemen had a tailor, a hatter, shoemaker, cheese-monger, wine merchant, and so on. These specialist shops can still be seen in the small streets of Mayfair and St James today. Go inside the historic shops learn about their history, sample perfume, try high-end cheeses, and buy a tailored shirt, tie or shoes. Stop for lunch at Fortnum's and Mason, the world-famous department store. Fortnum's as Londoner's call it dates from 1707 and is a department store which specializes in wine, food, and all the beautiful things in life. Drive across London's iconic bridges, see Buckingham Palace, leafy squares and major landmarks before arriving at the London Eye.

We arrange a private capsule on the London Eye for you

The large walk around capsule with 360-degree views will be at your disposal. Slowly rotating observation wheel, with the whole of the London skyline as your backdrop unfolding minute by minute. Having your private capsule is improved by a bottle of Pommery Brut Royal Champagne and a luxury box of Chocolate Pink Champagne Truffles, both served by your host. Your chauffeur and guide will meet you from the Eye and whisk you back to your hotel.

We will provide various dinner options based on your preferences.

Overnight: London.

Day 3

Queen Mary's garden picnic in the park and theatre

Service: chauffeur-driven tour with guide on-board.

Today is the opportunity to visit any other places of interest with a guide. Tour inside St Paul's Cathedral and see the beautiful interior of the dome, one of the largest in the world. If you are feeling energetic, climb the 533 steps to the top of the dome for incredible views of London.

Tour the world heritage site of the Tower of London. An ancient royal palace, prison and Castle. Detained individuals of significance inside the Tower of London, include Queen Anne Boleyn, Thomas Cromwell, Princess Elizabeth and Guy Fawkes. See the world-famous Crown Jewels on display inside the Tower of London, including the Imperial State Crown, Sovereign's Sceptre with Cross, which contains the Cullinan diamond at 530.2 carats, also known as the Great Star of Africa.

Walk-through-time, get off-the-beaten-path and explore the alleyways, snickets and ancient chapels and churchyards of the Old City of London. See lesser-known London, explore Roman ruins, ancient places of worship and great old pubs.

Stop for afternoon tea in Queen Mary's Garden (weather permitting). We will arrange a picnic-style afternoon tea in one of the world's most beautiful Rose Gardens. Return to the hotel.

Restaurant reservations, theatre tickets and chauffeur-driven service to and from the venue will be provided.

Overnight: London.

Day 4

The romance of the Cotswolds and its gardens

Take a journey through England's romantic, countryside and visit the preserved historic villages surrounded by the Cotswold Hills. See traditional thatched cottages and delightful shops full of unusual and unique items.

Stop at Chipping Campden, the perfect Cotswolds market town, with its old pubs, tea rooms and a quaint market hall. Bibury first earned its title of 'the most beautiful village in England' from the artist and craftsman, William Morris.

During the afternoon you may wish to tour some of the quintessentially English gardens of the Cotswolds region. Tour Hidcote Manor Gardens, one of England's most exquisite gardens, a complete dream set high in the Cotswold Hills. The herbaceous borders and chambers of hedges add to the theme and character of the garden – every corner turned brings a smile to the face.

Overnight: Lygon Arms.

Day 5

Ballooning in the Cotswolds and antique shopping

Option: Before breakfast, meet the local hounds. Tag along and take the 100 or so hunting dogs on an early morning walk down a country lane. Learn about traditional dog hunting; return to the hotel for breakfast.

After a lazy breakfast head out into the Cotswolds and stop for a village browse around independent shops, art, and antiques. Stop at a country inn for lunch and relax at the spa before your evening Balloon ride. Depending on sunset times, you could have dinner before your flight above the rolling Cotswolds countryside. We instruct an experienced captain who has accrued over 2000 hours of flying time; you will be in safe hands.

As the sun sets, see England in a new light - watch the shadows stretch across the rolling farmland and sip your favourite tipple.

Overnight: Lygon Arms.

Day 6

Oxford; punting on the river and Blenheim Palace

The prestigious and historic university is at the heart of Oxford, and it's evolution as a city. An epicentre of academia and learning, it is home to the ethereal architectural skyline known as the dreaming spires. Exploring Oxford with your guide is like being on a treasure hunt, as you discover a trove of golden colleges. Follow the trail of Lewis Carroll and Alice in Wonderland, looking out for the white rabbit on the way, and track the footsteps of legendary writers such as JR Tolkien and C.S Lewis. Our guides tell the story of Oxford, not only from the outside looking in but you will also step inside architectural gems such as the Divinity School, a delicately curved ancient examination hall. See the Sheldonian theatre; the formal room students receive their degrees. The largest college Christchurch is used by filmmakers, such as the Harry Potter series of films. See the Great Hall, elegant staircases, and cathedral.

Blenheim Palace is the home to the Duke of Marlborough, and birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill. Blenheim Palace is a grand aristocratic home befitting the high status of a Dukedom. John Churchill, the 1st Duke of Marlborough defeated the French at the Battle of Blenheim in 1704, Queen Anne gave him the Manor of Woodstock and had this palatial house built for him in gratitude. This Baroque masterpiece built to impress; the long drive up to the great court provides splendid views of Capability Brown's world-famous landscaped grounds. Time-permitting, tour the magnificent staterooms. Walk a romantic walk around the formal gardens, Italian, secret, rose and pleasure gardens along with the water terraces.

Overnight: Cliveden House.

“Oxford remains the most beautiful thing in England, and nowhere else are life and art so exquisitely blended, so perfectly made one.”
Oscar Wilde

Day 7

Private Thames River boat and lunch

Drive into the green hills of the Thames valley. Stop at small historic towns and villages for shopping. Reservations will be made at a riverside restaurant, watch pleasure craft, swans, and wildlife over a hearty lunch.

Head back to Cliveden to enjoy the famous landscaped grounds, and have us book a spa treatment. We have several options available for a serene boating experience on the river Thames. Please ask for further details. For example; following an extensive restoration project by the National Trust, Lady Astor's electric canoe 'Liddesdale' is now in immaculate working condition.

Overnight: Cliveden house.

Day 8

Chauffeur-driven transfer to London Heathrow

Your chauffeur will be with you 15 minutes before you are required to leave, assist with luggage. The journey time to Heathrow is around 20 minutes from Cliveden house or Stoke Park.

"I just wanted to take a moment to say thank you for all your help in making our trip to London a "once in a lifetime" trip. The itinerary was superb and the accommodations were perfect. I would not change a single thing."

Guest Houses and historic places

Guesthouses and B&B's have come a long way in the past 20 years. High-end bedding, luxurious surroundings, and refined touches are now much more common.

You get a massive bang for your buck with this category of accommodation. Stay in a private castle, gatehouse, folly, fort, lighthouse or historic country cottage is the way the British enjoy Britain. Be surrounded by glorious countryside, walking distance to a genuine village pub, and be intrigued by living if but for a short time somewhere special.

Castles & Manor House Hotels

There's nothing quite like arriving at an authentic medieval castle or manor house and knowing you are staying the night. Every portrait, grand staircase and corridor has a tale to tell.

Each chamber will be unique, have quirks and exciting features. This style of hotel will have historic landscaped grounds, gardens, and produce grown onsite. Some have golf courses and other leisure facilities such as spas.

Town House & Boutique Hotels

Location, location, location, your traditional townhouse hotel will be centrally situated right in town. Walk out the door and be surrounded by shops, cafes, restaurants and historical landmarks.

The boutique versions of these town centre locations will have a contemporary feel with designer bars and lounges. There is a choice of out of town boutique hotels too.

Contemporary & Designer Hotels

Cutting edge design with elegance, setting new standards of luxury. Contemporary British hotels embody comfort, style and tech. Britain's designer hotels are just that.

Every last detail created for that place to stay and that place only. Door handles, keyholes, wine glasses and spa have seamless themes and motifs, generating the feeling of being inside a work of art.

Classic & Britain's finest Hotels

Start and end your day in a refined and grand hotel with the best service. Known as Britain's finest Hotels, enjoy the grandeur, history, architecture along with high-end facilities.

The Classic British, five-star hotel, has world-class restaurants, up to date spas, and beautifully designed golf courses. These hotels will have manicured gardens and extensive grounds to explore. Rooms tend to have antiques and valuable works of art.
