LUXURY VACATIONS UK

SINCE 2002

The Wales adventure tour is perfect for those who want to see Wales and include climbing, hiking, and take part in mild to extreme sports. Outdoors fun with a few historic towns and castle's thrown in for good measure.

The terrain of Wales makes outdoor activities ideal, we have made suggestions of what you can do, but we can customise your tour for you. Activities include; rafting, canoeing, climbing, zip wires, hiking, survival training, wild swimming and much more.

This seven-night suggested tour can be customised to match your interests, pace of travel, and preferred hotel style.

Day 1

Chepstow Castle, Tintern Abbey and Symonds Yat Rock

Head straight from Heathrow into the west - Tour the borders of England and Wales and discover an impressive fortress and romantic ruin.

Chepstow is a wonder to explore, discover and dream of the Medieval world. Erupting out of the jagged limestone cliff, it towers over the river wye, the guardian of the main river crossing from England to Southern Wales. Wales is the land of dragons and castles. The principality has a turbulent past; raids have come from both sides of the border, invasion by the Anglo-Normans and English Kingdoms eventually made Wales part of an Anglo-Welsh dominion; This is a story of rebellion, power, and Royal politics, enjoy the tales.

Cistercian monks founded Tintern Abbey in 1131. Now all that remains of this once-thriving monastery is a romantic ruin, lost in time. The ecclesiastical architecture is a skeleton of the Abbey, intricate and fragile. Its ethereal elegance, perhaps, more beautiful ruined than whole, and indeed more poignant.

End your day with views from Symonds Yat Rock that is breathtakingly beautiful. far below see the River Wye and above Peregrin Falcons hurtle towards their prey.

Overnight: Brecon Beacons

Day 2

Brecon Beacons, Carreg Cennen, and raptor feeding

The beautiful Brecon Beacons National Park covers 520 square miles from the Wales-England border. It feels like you've stepped into Tolkein's middle earth. The folds of giant mountains frame emerald green vistas. This place is every outdoor lover's paradise! Where you can experience epic mountain bike adventures, hiking in an environment where you will meet more sheep than people. It's glorious isolation with breathtaking scenery.

Discover a hidden Castle with a secret, a fortification with Iron age origins. The earliest structure was probably the work of a Welsh prince - Lord Rhys, ruler of South Wales. The isolated imposing ruins we see today bear all the hallmarks of a border Lord demonstrating his power, wealth and influence. This spectacularly located Castle built as a symbol of control. Carreg Cennen was part of a series of such fortresses built by Marcher lords throughout Wales after the Edwardian conquest. There is a dark secret to discover deep below its ramparts, be brave and explore the dungeon and cave with your guide.

Stop for lunch and sample local cheese before heading back into the Brecon Beacons. Stop at the Red Kite feeding station. This successfully re-introduced raptor will be seen in high numbers when feeding begins. We watch quietly from a bird hide as they circle above, they then dive and battle in mid-air for flesh. It is an impressive sight to see.

Overnight: Brecon Beacons

Day 3

Mountain hiking in Snowdonia National Park

There are options to tackle a challenging walking trail or something more leisurely. We will have opportunities to suit your ability. Welsh mountains are dramatic, be amongst emerald coloured foothills, heather, rock and slate-covered slopes and windy peaks. It is a magical experience.

Stop for a beer or afternoon tea in an authentic locals village: sample, cheese, honey, and mead. Purchase a Welsh love spoon before heading back to the hotel. Drive along river banks, and through wooded valleys.

Overnight: Mid-Wales.

Day 4

Adventure Parc Snowdonia

Drive down to the Adventure Parc Snowdonia for an adrenaline-fuelled day.

The inland surf lagoon is a world first, guaranteeing the perfect surf break. With the backdrop of the forests and mountains of Snowdonia, the remarkable technology delivers a variety of wave profiles so that absolute beginners can surf safely alongside the pros.

The expert surf tuition available, and reliable waves make this the ideal, family-friendly training arena.

Other options include; Outdoor climbing walls, zip-wires, river gorge walking, high ropes, and more.

Overnight: Mid-Wales.

Day 5

Snowdonia National Park, mountain train and Conwy

Covering over 800 square miles, Snowdonia National Park breaks the horizon and clutches the skyline with the Snowdon Massif dominating the view. The most famous mountain and the highest peak is Snowdon, followed closely by Gamedd Ugain.

Many hikers train on Snowdon in preparation for climbing Mount Kilimanjaro and Everest. For those not in training, we suggest we opt to travel up the mountain by steam locomotive, operated by the Snowdon Mountain Railway.

Conwy town and Castle surrounded by the protective outer walls of the Castle, Conwy is a market town dating from the 13th Century. Ancient houses still exist along with the well-preserved Castle, imposing and magnificent. Built by King Edward I in the 13th Century, the primary purpose was protecting the town while managing and governing the local area. The details add to the medieval charm of the Castle's decoration, whereas the arrow-slits on the towers add to the structure's serious roll. Climb the turrets and town walls for the panoramic view of the town and Snowdonia. The chapel, kitchens, and chambers are intact and demonstrate life within the Castle.

Overnight: Conwy.

Day 6

Zip World adventure day

Today is not for the faint hearted, this is ZIP World day. Zip world has several locations with various experiences available. The most famous is Velocity 2, the fastest zip line in the world. Therefore, you must prepare for a unique and exhilarating experience. Fly over Penrhyn Quarry where you could travel at speeds of over 100mph while you take in the views and feel the rush of air.

Other options include; Cavern exploration, Zip wires for younger children, giant swings, forest coaster and tree hopping. There will be an option for you and your family group. All abilities catered, no one is left out.

Overnight: Conwy.

Day 7

Chatsworth House and Peak District National Park

Chatsworth, in its golden, neo-classical splendour, is an accurate illustration of the vast power and wealth of the British aristocracy. This stately house and grounds, comprising of 126 rooms is everything you hope to experience from a stately home. It has ornately decorated interiors, the finest art, antique furniture and a rich tapestry of family history.

It is thought that Jane Austen visited Chatsworth in 1811 and when writing Pride and Prejudice and used it as her inspiration for Darcy's house, Pemberley. Discover Britain's first-ever National Park, The Peak District National Park - with its breathtaking and distinctive landscape. The story of the Peaks is a story of a historical connection between the land and us humans. Its dramatic geological scenery holds clues to our archaeological past - your guide will enlighten you.

Head down to the Cotswolds, and see picture-perfect villages, with cosy pubs and historic churches.

Overnight: Cotswolds.

Day 8

Transfer to London Heathrow

Stay an extra night, or head off to Heathrow. The journey time is around 2 hours from the Cotswolds.

"I just wanted to take a moment to say thank you for all your help in making our trip to London a "once in a lifetime" trip. The itinerary was superb and the accommodations were perfect. I would not change a single thing."
